THE FIRST FROST

Brings a Jubilee of Joy To Memphis.

Business Reviving and Refugees Returning.

Epecial to the Star.

MEMPRIS, TENN., Oct. 24.-It is now clearly settled that a light frost formed last night. The streets show undoubted signs of coming business. Refugees are returning every day, and the quarantine is raised at several minor places. No new cases, Dr. R. G. McDouald, of the City Hospital, and Charles O. McDonald, of the Southern Express Company, are both dead. PICKETT.

THIS MORNING AT MEMPHIS.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 24-9 A. M.—The back-bone of the fever is at last broken, and on every hand are indications of the business revival. The weather last night was clear and the atmosphere cold. Early in the evening there were indications of a sharp frost, but the temperature moderated somewhat before morning, the thermometer ranging low as 43, but whether frost was actually observable or not is dubious. Early risers differ, but we are willing to believe there was a slight frost. Several hundred absentees preparing for business come into the city during the day and return at night. The quarantine will probably be raised in a few days and the Howard doctors and nurses find their occupation entirely gone. impossible to keep things at a standstill much longer.

Herr Richard Wagner is a person terrifying to the librettist. Roche's description of a day passed with the composer, the former hammering out the words, the latter the music, is very entertaining. Wagner arrived at 7 o'clock, and they worked without respite until midday. Roche bent over his desk writing and erasing; Wagner strode to and fro, bright w.M. RENO, Indianapolis, Ind. of eye, vehement of gesture, shouting, singing, striking the piano, and con-stantly bidding poor Roche "Go on! Go on!" An hour or two after noon Roche, hungry and exhausted, let fall his pen, almost fainting. "What's the matter?" asked the composer. "I am hungry." "True; I had forgotten all about that; let us have a forgotten all about that; let us have a warded by leaving it at 31 Ma n street, or at the wards have a make and go on again." Night work. "I was shattered, stupefied," says Roche. "My head burned, my temples throbbed. I was half mad with my wild search after strange words to fit the strange music. He was erect still, vigorous and fresh as when we commenced our task, walking up and down, striking his infernal piano, terrifying me at last, as I perceived dancing about me on every side his eccentric shadow, cast by the fantastic reflections of the lamp, and crying to me ever, "Go on! go on!" while trumpeting in my ears cabalistic words and supernatural music. In Davenport, Iowa, a virtuous mob threw stones and antique eggs at an officer who was guilty of the outrage of trying to arrest a bride just as she was starting on her bridal trip, merely for stealing $50 out of somebody's trunk. The sympathetic crowd wouldn't have it, and the ill-timed officer had to hide to save his life. Hymen is recognized as having very sacred rights in that State.
